Addresses of welcome were delivered by Hon. R. Goodwin Rhett, Mayor of Charleston; Rev. Alexander Sprunt, D.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and W. H. Cogswell, of Bethel Church, Charleston. Bishop Hendrix responded in behalf of the Conference.

The following resolutions, offered by John O. Willson, were adopted:

"Whereas, the last General Conference, by a unanimous vote, expressed the wish that this quadrennium should be specially devoted to prayer and labor for a revival and an evangelistic advance; and

Whereas, the Bishops, our chief pastors, have called upon the Church at large to move in these directions; and

Whereas, the needs of Christendom enforce these calls of the Church to her chiefest mission; and

Whereas, there seem to be tokens of promise; therefore Resolved, 1. That the Committee on Public Worship be requested to arrange for evangelistic services at some afternoon or evening hour of each day of this Annual Conference—that is, for evangelistic preaching and whatever else may be appropriate.

2. That we request the Bishop and Presiding Elders to consider the spiritual state and needs of the Conference, and to report to this body not later than 10 o'clock Friday morning.

3. That we further request our Bishop and Presiding Elders to be our leaders in all proper measures calculated to promote the much-desired revival, and we ask them to suggest at the time of their report upon the spiritual state of our Conference such measures for us to follow as may secure a mighty uplift and advance of God's Kingdom.

4. That this Conference will be pleased for its keynote to be "a genuine and abiding revival, embracing the entire ministry and membership," and continuing, not for a few passing days, but moving through years to come. (Signed)

REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Your Committee regrets that the lack of time and facility of obtaining data from the pastors of the Conference makes it impossible for us to submit you a definite and satisfactory report on the spiritual status of the Church in the bounds of our Conference.

After several hours' earnest and conscientious consideration of the matter, however, we are of one mind that the spiritual pulse of our charges is, as a rule, entirely too weak, and that prompt and decisive steps should be taken by our Bishops, Presiding Elders and pastors to renew our strength and secure a purer and more active life. To this end your committee is in hearty accord with the address of the college of bishops at the recent General Conference, and also with the action of that Conference, raising the alarm, and calling upon the Church for a prayerful and honest consideration of plans looking to a general evangelism.

We do not imply that our beloved Church is doomed to death, or that she is in a worse condition than her sister denominations. On the contrary, we face a condition of declension common to all. Yet it is for us to deplore our own lack of faith and feebleness of effort, and of our failure to measure up to the wondrous possibilities of this "grand and awful time."

CAUSES OF SUCH A CONDITION.

The cause of this condition may be found in a number of particulars, which we beg leave to cite:

First. The influence of the strenuous commercial age in which we live upon the minds and tempers of our people. The service of mammon seems to have the right of way.

Second. The growing craze for secular brotherhoods and social clubs, which divide the interests of our men and women, and consume too much of their time, diverting them from the cultivation of their home life and the meeting of their church obligations.

Third. The diversified ministry of our pastors, who are forced to bear the burden of so much of the details of the material affairs of the Church, preventing them from giving themselves wholly to study and prayer and pastoral visitation.

Fourth. The departure, in too many instances, from the law and the prophets, and from the cardinal principles of the gospel as given by our perfect and supreme Teacher, interpreted by the apostles, in our pulpits. It is our conviction that our preachers need a new vision of the eternal truth, a new sense of our responsibility to proclaim it; in a word, a new call to the ministry of our blessed Lord!

SUGGESTIONS.

In view of these facts and considerations we offer the following suggestions:

First. That a meeting of our Presiding Elders be called as early as possible after the session of this Conference, at some place convenient to them, for the purpose of considering and formulating plans for a thorough State-wide evangelism, and that the district lay leaders be requested to meet and confer with them on this occasion.

Second. That as soon as possible after this Conference of the Presiding Elders each of them call together the pastors and lay leaders of his district, to plan for specific district evangelism.

Third. That a committee of Presiding Elders be appointed by our presiding Bishop, to serve for the ensuing year, whose business it shall be to secure specific data as to the spiritual status of the Church, and to report at the next session of our body.

Fourth. That we call upon our entire ministry and membership to give themselves to earnest prayer and consecration, with a view to the real salvation of our people and a richer spirituality in the Church.

LAYMEN'S MOVEMENT.

Your Committee of Laymen, appointed for the purpose of considering a communication from the General Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and other matters pertaining to the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and to prepare a report to be presented at this Conference and printed in the Minutes, beg leave to report:

First. That we have carefully considered the communication addressed to this Conference by the General Secretary of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and heartily approve the policy as far as therein expressed.

Second. We believe the "Every Member Canvass," seeking to secure a weekly offering for missions from every Southern Methodist, will enable us to do our share in evangelizing men who are out of Christ, both at home and abroad, and that it will eventually solve most of the financial problems of the Church, and we hereby pledge ourselves to a full co-operation with our pastors in carrying it into effect.

Third. We urge the adoption of the envelope as the simplest and most effective effort for collecting money for missions and the current expenses of the Church.

Fourth. We respectfully request the managers of the missionary organ, the Christian Advocate, and the Southern Christian Advocate to open a laymen's missionary department, and recommend that the Missionary Committee make it a part of the "Every Member Canvass" to see that these publications be put in every Southern Methodist home in this Conference.

Fifth. We approve the increase in the endowment fund for the superannuated preachers, and pledge our hearty co-operation in raising this fund.

Sixth. We earnestly request the Presiding Elders to emphasize the question relating to the election of local or church lay leaders.

Seventh. We most heartily approve the plan of having missionary rally day in the fall, and urge all pastors to co-operate with the leaders in observing this day.

We hereby nominate George C. Hodges, Greenwood, S. C., for Conference Lay Leader, and W. M. Jones, Spartanburg, S. C., for Conference Vice-leader for the ensuing year.

REPORT ON EDUCATION.

WOFFORD COLLEGE.

The property valuation of Wofford College is as follows:

Seventy-six acres of land	$140,000.00
Buildings	185,000.00
Library, furniture and apparatus	31,800.00
Endowment to June 4, 1910	137,494.78
	$494,294.78

The buildings are insured.

The total enrollment for the present year to date is 395—235 in college and 160 in the Fitting School. The freshman class now numbers over 90, an increase of 65 per cent over last year.

The second session of the Summer School for Teachers was held during the past summer. There were about 160 teachers in attendance, and the success was gratifying. We appreciate this work on the part of the faculty of Wofford College.

The second session of the Preachers' Institute was held in September. There were about sixty preachers present, and a fine program was carried out.

The following legacies have come to the college in the past year:

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jordan, of Timmonsville	$ 250.00
John W. Truesdale, Kershaw	2,000.00
Rev. A. J. Stafford, Spartanburg	1,500.00
Miss Mary Armstrong, Rockton	1,000.00
	$4,750.00

In reference to the endowment movement begun five years ago, $70,000 has been collected. There are notes on this past due to the amount of $24,000, and notes not yet due to the amount of $15,000, a total of $39,000. The General Board of Education is prorating with us in the proportion of four to one. And Mr. Carnegie offers us $20,000 whenever we shall have collected $80,000 in cash for the endowment and $10,000 for the library. It will thus be seen that if we could now collect as much as three-fourths of what is standing in notes past due we would at once receive his gift of $20,000.

On the Carlisle Memorial Hall we have approximately $30,000 in pledges, but we must have $60,000 with which to build. The memorial to the late Dr. James H. Carlisle must be one that will worthily represent the name that it will bear.

Ten years ago there were 11 instructors, 257 students; endowment, $70,000. There are now 20 instructors, 395 students, $140,000 in endowment, and three additional buildings. But we trust the next decade will witness a still greater growth.

We desire to express our appreciation of the good work of Dr. R. A. Child, the Financial Agent. Dr. Child has done a monumental work, and his success as a financial agent speaks for itself.

COLUMBIA COLLEGE.

The property valuation is $115.000. The past year has been an arduous and trying one for Columbia College on account of the destructive fire of September 9, 1909. But, in the face of great difficulties, the work has gone steadily onward. The sessions for the year just past were conducted in the Colonia Hotel, the old home of the college; but now the work is being done at the new college.

There are 20 instructors and 257 students, and 180 of these are boarders.

Columbia College has a bonded indebtedness of $60,000, which will be due part in ten years and part in twenty years. There is a floating indebtedness of $20,000. But there are subscriptions and notes which are amply able to cover the floating indebtedness. We hope that the administration building can be erected within the next year as it is imperatively needed. If the friends of Columbia College will all work together for a few more years we will soon have a great college and one free from debt.

We hereby express our appreciation of the faithful work of Brother P. A. Hodges, the retiring financial agent of Columbia College. He has done a faithful, successful work.

LANDER COLLEGE.

The property valuation is $75,000 and endowment $2,000. There are 17 teachers and 199 students. Of these 49 are from the town of Greenwood.

The college during the past year experienced a good revival of religion, in which about twenty students were converted and were added to the Church.

On account of the fact that Lander College can not take care of all who desire to enter, it is very necessary to erect a new dormitory. The Board of Trustees desire this Conference to grant permission that the college be mortgaged for $25,000 for the purpose of erecting a dormitory. We recommend that permission be granted to mortgage the college for that purpose, and that the building be erected as soon as possible. We feel that these buildings asked for by our three colleges are urgently needed; we feel that the Methodist people of South Carolina are amply able to pay for them, and if we hesitate to do this work it will be a reflection on our spirituality and liberality. What we need is for the entire Church to work together and to advance the interests of our three colleges simultaneously. We believe that our people are able and willing to advance the cause of Christian education in the bounds of our Conference.

CARLISLE FITTING SCHOOL.

The Carlisle Fitting School reopened in September. This school is now worth $35,000. There are 3 instructors and 55 students. During the past summer the buildings were made much more comfortable, and the prospects are now good for a prosperous year at Carlisle.

COKESBURY CONFERENCE SCHOOL.

The value of this property is $3,000, with $800 endowment. There is one teacher and 44 students. The school has long been hampered by adverse circumstances. But we hope a better day for Cokesbury will soon come.

THE CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL.

The Correspondence School has had a successful year, the attendance ranging from 700 to 1,000 during the year. During the eight years from the time the school was organized 2,492 students have been enrolled, which means that one-third of the pastors in our Church at present have been students in this school. The Correspondence School has looked carefully into the matter of ministerial supply, and reports that last year more men were admitted on trial than ever before in any one year.

The General Conference asks that the names of all candidates for the ministry (whether licensed or not) be reported to the Board of Education and then to the General Board of Education.

GENERAL BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The General Board of Education reports that we now have nine colleges that have endowments above $100,000; five with endowments above $200,000; two above $200,000; Trinity more than $500,000, and Vanderbilt University, $1,500,000.

ASSESSMENTS.

The apportionment on our Conference from the General Board is $4,636.

We recommend an assessment of $11,500 for next year for Wofford College, and that the trustees be directed to appropriate from the proceeds of such assessment $1,000 to Carlisle Fitting School. We recommend an assessment of $750 for Cokesbury Conference School. We recommend an assessment of $5,000 for Columbia College.

BOARDS OF TRUSTEES.

We nominate:

Trustees of Wofford College—J. L. Glenn, Jas. W. Kilgo, R. A. Child, D. M. McLeod, F. H. Shuler, W. E. Burnett, John B. Cleveland, J. A. McCullough, B. H. Moss, H. P. Williams, H. B. Carlisle, Walter F. Stackhouse, W. T. Duncan.

EPWORTH ORPHANAGE.

With gratitude to our Heavenly Father and the constituency of the Epworth Orphanage in the State, we make our annual report to the South Carolina Conference of 1910. The condition of the institution is such as to give encouragement and hope to our Church in the effort to provide for the fatherless ones among us, and to train them for worthy and useful citizenship. The mercies and blessings of God which have come to our orphan home during the past year enable the Board of Managers and Trustees to make to you a most gratifying report.

The expenses of the year have been necessarily large, for the reason that the family is large and provisions have been high. The demands, however, for maintenance and development have been met, and the business affairs of the home have been run, as usual, on a cash basis. While there are Sunday schools and churches in our Conference that do little for the Orphanage, still there are many others that make generous contributions for its support, and, on the whole, it has been well provided for.

During the year, on account of the increased amount of work to be done by the Superintendent, due to the material improvements which have been made and the ever-growing needs of the institution, he has not been able to be away from the Orphanage more than five Sundays in the interest of the work, and was not permitted to attend all of the District Conferences. His appeals to the pastors and Sunday school superintendents by letters, and to the Church by an occasional letter in the Southern Christian Advocate, were the methods he adopted, and these have had good results. We wish to commend again the special support plan and the workday for the orphans. The success attending workday this year was the best we have ever had under the proposition. We are glad to say that there is an improvement in the financial condition over that of last year.

We report the admission of thirty-nine children into the Orphanage during the year, and twenty-four have gone out. Four finished the school in June. Three of these are, by outside aid, attending college, and one secured a position immediately after the school closed. Two have been placed into good homes; one has died, and the others went to relatives. There are now two hundred inmates in the institution.

More money has come into our treasury this year through bequests than usual. We received from the bequest of Mrs. Dr. S. A. Weber, of which mention was made in our last report, $2.325; from scholarship given by Miss M. M. Armstrong, $1,000, and $100 bequeathed by Mrs. F. E. Wright.

The farm of the Orphanage has yielded well again this year. We think enough corn has been grown and housed to furnish the family meal and grist and to feed all of the stock. More cotton has been raised than usual, and the crops of hay, grain, potatoes, peas and vegetables have been good.

The industries of the institution have not had the patronage they sometimes have, yet we report them self-sustaining.

The beautiful "Walton Home" has been erected and occupied during the year. The means with which to put up this home was given by Brother Geo. W. Williams, of Charleston, S. C., in memory of his father. It is called the "Walton Home" so as to take the middle name of Brother Williams's father.

A barn and corn crib have also been builded this year, besides the usual amount of repair and cleansing work.

The school and Church are always important factors in rearing and training children everywhere. They have no less a part in the proper development of the children here in Epworth. The school runs nine months in the year and carries the pupils through the tenth grade course. Religious services are held for the children each Sunday in our own church on the campus. The six teachers of the graded school are also teachers in our Sunday school.

The health of the Orphanage family was good this past Conference year until spring time; then the usual complaints of such a season began, but it was thought they would all soon pass away without any serious complications. To our surprise several cases of typhoid fever developed among the children during the spring and summer, resulting in the death of Inez Ammons, one of our girls. The cases of fever of this type have been very few at the Orphanage for several years, and we were therefore not expecting several cases in one season. There was a good deal of typhoid fever in Shandon and in the city of Columbia, else we would have been disposed to think that the cause at the Orphanage was local.

While the sanitary conditions are looked after carefully, there are too many people gathered at the Orphanage now to do without sewerage if it can be had, and the management has already begun work looking to the installment of a sewerage system. Located as are the Orphanage grounds, without the aid of the community around, it will necessarily cost a considerable sum to put in this system. Our people, however, we believe will come to the rescue and meet the extra necessary expenditure for such improvement.

Looking back over the years since the Epworth Orphanage was established, and noting the guidance and mercies of our Lord in behalf of this institution and its inmates, we are led to thank Him and take courage.

The Board requests that Rev. W. B. Wharton be reappointed Superintendent of Epworth Orphanage.

Edward Ehrlich, Chairman.
W. J. Murray, Secretary.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Convinced of the great importance of the subject entrusted to our care, we have made careful inquiry as far as possible as to our publications, and beg leave to make the following report:

The instruction and upbuilding of our people must depend in large measure on our church periodicals. Hence it is of the utmost importance that these should be truly educative and present high standards and offer wholesome teaching. In many particulars it is noticeable that a decided improvement has been made in the style and get-up of our literature.

We request that a continued and earnest effort be made to circulate our church literature and books, especially the Christian Advocate, of Nashville; our new organ, the Missionary Voice; the Epworth Era, and also our own Conference organ, the Southern Christian Advocate. It is clear that our people can not keep up with the great movements of our Church at home and abroad without the Christian Advocate and our missionary literature. But, in addition to these, among our own Conference membership, every possible effort should be made to circulate our Conference organ, the Southern Christian Advocate. The price, which is now only one dollar a year, is certainly as reasonable as could be asked; the make-up of the paper is very creditable, and we are convinced that the editor is giving us the best paper possible with the means at his disposition; and his plans are to make it better as soon as the resources will permit. The subscription list has now gone to over eleven thousand names, and it is hoped that during this year it can be increased to at least twelve thousand, with a tendency upward.

In view of the fact that the reading of our Conference organ furnishes so much information to our people, and hence is so helpful to the pastor in his work, it is just and reasonable that the pastors should zealously urge, as indeed many of them have already done, our members to subscribe; and, not only this, but we request the pastors and laymen to send news items and more elaborately prepared articles to the editor's office.

Our Methodist Review, edited by Dr. Gross Alexander, is a periodical of high grade, with splendidly prepared articles. We recommend the Review to our pastors and advanced laymen as worthy of their most careful reading.

We would urge our pastors to help our people to the knowledge of good books and where they can be had. The higher preparation of our members for more usefulness, the instruction of our Sunday school workers in the best methods, all depend upon the distribution of our books. All of these can be had at our publishing house in Nashville, Tennessee.

It is hoped, therefore, by your Committee, that these recommendations will not only be approved by the vote of the Conference, but as far as possible acted upon during the year.

Respectfully submitted,

R. H. JONES, Chairman.
H. B. HARDY, Secretary.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

The Board of Managers of the Southern Christian Advocate is pleased to report that the Advocate now has a circulation of 11,600, the largest in its history.

We call attention to the fact that it is the only Advocate now published at the price of one dollar, and it is necessary, therefore, that a considerable part of its income be derived from its advertising. Other Advocates whose subscription price is two dollars a year carry the same advertising matter, both as to quality and quantity. As the circulation increases the amount of space given to advertising will be diminished.

This is the first time under the present administration that the paper has been able to meet its fixed expenses. We have requested the editor, as soon as practicable, to give in the columns of the paper a full statement of the income of the paper and the cost of its publication.

We recommend that Rev. S. A. Nettles be appointed editor of the Southern Christian Advocate.

Respectfully submitted,

W. P. Meadors, Chairman.
W. A. Massebeau, Sec. pro tem.

MINUTES.

Your Committee on Minutes beg to submit the following report for adoption:

We recommend that $1,200 be assessed upon the Conference for the year 1911 for the publication of our Minutes, and that $100 of this amount be allowed for the general expenses of the Secretary. We recommend further that 7,000 copies of the Minutes be published. We nominate E. O. Watson and R. E. Turnipseed as editors for present year.

The account of the Secretary has been examined and found correct.

John H. Graves, Chairman.
W. F. Cross, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

The journals of the several districts have been carefully examined and found to be excellently kept.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

It is with great pleasure that progress in the Sunday School work is reported. During this year there has been a greater interest in the work and more effort made to improve methods and arouse a deeper concern for this most important part of the Church's labor.

There is no desire to make a lengthy report, but to call attention to some matters that deserve consideration. Children's Day has been more generally observed this year than ever before. The collections have more than doubled those of last year. It is earnestly desired that this increase may be continued. The Children's Day programs will be furnished free as heretofore. Attention is directed to the Sunday School literature. That for next year will show improvement on the already excellent periodicals sent out. Especially will this be seen in the new departments in the Magazine and Adult Student. The two papers, the Visitor and Boys and Girls, are fully suited to our needs. The publishers will send sample copies to any who may desire to have them.

The Adult Bible class is being found one of the most useful and helpful agencies of the Church. In order that this work may be done well it is advised and urged that Wesley Adult Bible classes be organized with the constitution provided for them. Copies of this may be had by application to Rev. Charles D. Bulla, Superintendent of this work. It was a pleasure and help to have present Dr. Chappell, the Sunday School editor, and to hear his splendid address. The exhibit of Sunday School literature by Mr. French was timely and instructive.

During the past year a field secretary was employed. This was new work and its success could not be foreseen, but the year's work has proved the wisdom of this step, and has encouraged the Board to undertake it for another year. Brother J. M. Way, the Field Secretary, has been abundant in labors and has done great good. For next year the hearty co-operation of the preachers and Sunday School workers is bespoken in behalf of his work that it may be more successful another year, and bring about a deeper interest and greater power for good in all our schools.

In order to help the work the Board asks what it did last year, that an assessment equal to one per cent on pastors' salary be made for the support of this work. And also that this amount be apportioned by the Joint Board of Finance as the other claims are.

L. F. BEATY, Chairman.
D. M. MCLEOD, Secretary.

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

Your Board has gone carefully over all the matter presented and gives the following summary:

The very encouraging amount of $74,840.52 has been raised in our own Conference for missions, as follows:

On the regular assessments:

Foreign Missions	$20,803.03
Domestic Missions	18,577.54
Specials	7,114.92
Woman's Foreign Missionary Society	19,656.59
Woman's Home Mission Society	8,688.44

Eight Presiding Elders' districts and 217 pastoral charges have paid their assessments in full.

The great forward movement of the Christian churches of the world, as also the unquestioned authority of the command, "Go," has most naturally influenced our own Church.

As a result the assessment for Foreign Missions has been increased from $385,000 to $500,000. This is, we believe, as it should be. The amount apportioned to our Conference for Foreign Missions is $24,400.

Owing to the increased demands, growing out of the changing conditions in the industrial life within our own Conference, we make an assessment for Conference Missions of $25,000.

We include in this amount an assessment of $2,440 for the use of the Home Department of the General Board. A list of the charges receiving aid from this fund is appended hereto.

We suggest that, though there is an increase in assessment, the every-member campaign, properly launched and faithfully worked, will enable us to meet easily all our obligations.

We recommend to all of our preachers and Sunday School superintendents the missionary policy for the Sunday School which has been prepared by the joint action of the General Board of Missions and the Sunday School Board.

We call attention to our new periodical, the Missionary Voice, and urge that every reasonable effort be made to give this magazine a wide circulation.

We wish also to record again our willingness to co-operate with the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and assure these brethren of our sympathy and help.

We further request that the Editor of the Southern Christian Advocate publish, in full, in the columns of this paper the letter sent to this Conference by the General Board of Missions.

We earnestly urge early collections as heretofore.

We commend to you the work of the Conference Missionary Secretary, he agreeing to give largely of his time to this work, and will be at your service for any forward movement.

We nominate Rev. M. B. Kelly for appointment as Conference Missionary Secretary.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

The Bible Society Board is glad to be able to report for the past year—the last of its quadrennium of service—an increased interest in the great cause it has been its high privilege to represent. This is shown in a comparison with the report presented a year ago by a decrease of twenty in the number of preachers making no reports and an increase of $120.40 in the amount collected.

The following statement gives by districts the number of preachers reporting contributions from their charges, the number not reporting, and the amount raised:

District.	Reporting.	Not Reporting.	Amounts.
Anderson	13	4	$ 52.36
Charleston	21	1	142.40
Cokesbury	12	6	50.07
Columbia	16	9	71.03

District.	Reporting.	Not Reporting.	Amounts.
Florence	18	2	$100.15
Greenville	13	8	39.69
Kingstree	17	4	70.60
Marion	15	6	67.77
Orangeburg	12	6	58.48
Rock Hill	14	4	75.61
Spartanburg	22	2	81.91
Sumter	11	6	62.55
Total	182	59	$ 872.65

One-fourth of the preachers, it will be noted, have made no report. The record for the four years of your Board's service is as follows:

Year.	Reporting.	Not Reporting.	Amounts.
1907	119	116	$516.75
1908	153	83	720.47
1909	162	79	752.25
1910	183	89	872.65

The Board is pleased also to report that the donation to the American Bible Society of Mrs. Russell Sage of a half million dollars, conditioned on the raising of an equal amount by the Society, was secured early in the year. This addition to its resources should not suggest and does not justify future reduction in the amounts contributed toward the carrying on of its work. The field has so enlarged and the calls for its assistance have so multiplied that contributions, even larger than hitherto received from churches and from individuals, are absolutely needed in the wonderful development at home and in heathen lands of missionary zeal and activity. The Society can utilize effectively an income many times larger than that which it now receives from all sources.

It is proposed to celebrate appropriately and practically next year the tri-centennial anniversary of the publication of the King James version of the Scriptures. Your Board recommends the co-operation of the Conference with the American Bible Society in an expression of grateful recognition of the devotion, learning and patient industry of those whose translation of the Word of God has for three centuries blessed humanity.

The Board recommends also, and urges, that the preachers of the Conference present to their charges the claims of the American Bible Society and take up the collections in its behalf, as directed by the Discipline, not later than the first of April of next year.

Respectfully reported,

VIRGIL C. DIBBLE, Chairman.
S. W. HENRY, Secretary.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE.

The Sabbath was instituted to be permanently a holy day. The need of it is written deep in man's physical and spiritual nature. Sabbath desecration in the way of labor or pleasure strikes at the foundation of all religious institutions and life. The preservation of the sanctity of the Sabbath day is necessary to the maintenance of the worship of God, for all Sabbath desecration is a direct violation of the divine command and diminishes the worship of God's house. The observance of this holy day is necessary to stay the tide of materialism. We condemn as a sin against God and man all unnecessary Sunday work and traffic. We would enter a protest against excursions as bidding for Sabbath desecration in the cheap rates offered. We heartily endorse the work of the Sunday League of America, and would urge our preachers and people to identify themselves with this movement, and join in the observance of the second Sunday in January, 1911, as "Sunday League Day." We request our preachers to preach that day on the importance of this movement and to take collections in all our churches for this work, so as to raise the $500 asked from our Conference on the memorial building erected to the memory of Bishop W. W. Duncan. We request the Secretary of this Conference to send to the office of the League, Fort Worth, Texas, a copy of the action of the Conference on this matter. Respectfully submitted,

Thos. J. Clyde, Chairman,
For Committee.

TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance begs leave to report as follows:

We desire to express our gratitude to Almighty God, the great head of the Church and author of all our blessings, for the victories already achieved in the cause of temperance throughout our beloved Southland. We are grateful to Him for the work and for the workmen. We are justly proud of the record our Church has made in pressing the battle against the legalized liquor traffic, and confidently believe that she can be trusted to continue her opposition until right finally triumphs against every foe.

We, with all Zion's hosts, rejoice in the progress the cause of temperance is making. In the sixteen Southern States there are 1,326 counties, and nearly 1,200 of these counties have branded the liquor traffic as an outlaw. The North and West have caught the spirit of the South, and are making such relentless war against it that victories are being almost daily recorded, and we look forward with faith to the near future when our entire country shall be emancipated.

While we believe the time is coming, speedily coming, we recognize and subscribe to the fact that the liquor forces are not to be defeated by merely outlawing the business. Such seems only to add to their desperation, and they, as a rule, resort to every and any measure by which the will of the people expressed at the polls may be nullified. For this reason we call upon every member of our Church, whether preacher or layman, to aid in the work of creating healthy, wholesome sentiment in favor of our prohibition laws, and in every legitimate way to encourage all of our officials in the enforcement of the same.

We would especially urge upon our people the great importance of securing men for official positions whose lives and records are clean and who when elected will stand for civic righteousness and moral reform.

Once again we desire to put ourselves as a Conference on record as opposed to the liquor traffic as conducted in six of the counties of our State, known as the dispensary system. We favor all legislation looking to the overthrow of the legalized saloon, by whatever name it may be known.

We appeal to the National Congress and Senate, and more especially to our own Representatives in that body, to work and vote for an amendment to our interstate commerce law, so that the United States government may not grant a license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in territory where it has been outlawed by the votes of the people, and also to empower each State to have police control of all liquors shipped into its borders by any other State, Territory or county.

Believing in the work and wisdom of the Anti-Saloon League, we hereby pledge our sympathy and hearty co-operation in its efforts to secure legislation against the traffic, and enforcement of the same.

We recommend that Hon. J. C. Otts and J. B. Carlisle be elected by this Conference to represent the League on the Board of Trustees.

We also recommend the appointment of Rev. J. L. Harley by the Bishop as State Superintendent for the year 1911.

Respectfully submitted,

S. A. DONAHOE, Chairman.
A. T. DUNLAP, Secretary.

BOARD OF FINANCE—No. 3.

The Board of Finance recommends an assessment of $13,500.00 for Conference claimants for the year 1911, and that 10 per cent of the amount collected therefor be applied to the Superannuate Endowment Fund.

The Board of Finance recommends that the treasurer be authorized to pay the assessment of $194.00 upon our Conference to defray the expense of our representatives to the Toronto Ecumenical Conference, to be held October, 1911, from the general Conference Delegate Fund, which he has on deposit. J. FULLER LYON, Secretary.

Charleston, S. C., December 12, 1910.

RESOLUTIONS.

COTTON MILL COMMISSION.

WHEREAS, after close and intimate contact with conditions in our mill districts, we conclude that we can not suppose the establishment of proper and permanent machinery on a basis of the revenue derived from the members themselves, because of the frequent changes of these members from mill to mill; and

WHEREAS, the properly manned church is a commercial as well as moral asset of the mills; and

WHEREAS, the lack of funds has prevented in a large measure the securing of efficient ministers for the churches already established; and

WHEREAS, the time is come when the necessity is upon us to place in these fields the best talent the church can secure, with a view to the permanent betterment of the operatives from a spiritual, moral, and intellectual standpoint:

Resolved, That we appeal to the administration of the mills to appropriate to the salaries of the pastors of the different denominations established at these mills a reasonable amount, proportioned according to the amounts paid by the members of the several churches and the Boards of Missions of the denominations interested.

Second. That a commission be appointed from this Conference to confer with a similar commission from other evangelical bodies of the State to bring before the Manufacturers' Association of South Carolina the above outlined proposition at its next session. A. J. CAUTHEN.

Child Labor.

Whereas, we have heard with pleasure the address on child labor by Dr. John Porter Hollis; and

Whereas, the employment of children of tender age is a serious menace to the future citizenship of South Carolina; and

Whereas, the premature toil of children disintegrates families and "depreciates the human stock";

Resolved, That this Conference go on record as heartily favoring the program of the South Carolina Child Labor Committee.

Second. That we memorialize the General Assembly of South Carolina to carefully consider this question, and that it give us such laws as will decrease as far as possible the evils of child labor.

Third. That the Secretary of this Conference be instructed to forward copies of these resolutions to the proper authorities of the South Carolina Legislature. (Signed) John O. Willson.
W. L. Wait.
R. L. Holroyd.
W. J. Snyder.

Dr. George Williams Walker and Prof. J. W. Gilbert.

Resolved, That this Conference has heard with pleasure the address of Prof. J. W. Gilbert, and we pray upon him and his mission the blessing of God, through whom alone abundant success can come.

Second. That we regret the absence of our brother, Dr. Geo. Williams Walker; that we trust he may soon recover strength and health; we hope he may live long to continue the great work which he has so nobly done; and we send to him an affectionate greeting and good wishes.
John O. Willson.
L. F. Beaty.

Appreciation and Sympathy.

Dr. John T. Wightman.

Whereas, the Rev. John T. Wightman, D.D., now an aged member of the Baltimore Conference, served as pastor in Charleston for nineteen years—a pastorate surpassing that of all who have labored here; and

Whereas, in all these years Dr. Wightman was very successful in his work for Charleston Methodism; and

Whereas, the companion of our beloved brother has recently fallen on sleep:

Resolved, That the South Carolina Conference remembers gratefully the long service of Dr. Wightman and cherishes the recollection of his high character and gentle spirit.

Second. That the secretary of this body be directed to write him a letter expressing our sympathy in his bereavement, our continued affection for him, and our wishes for rich comfort and all good to him and his. S. A. Weber.
John O. Willson.

Thanks.

Resolved, That the heartfelt thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby tendered, to the hospitable people of this grand old "City by the Sea" for the generous and elegant entertainment of the members of this body.

Second. That we appreciate specially the Christian courtesies of the churches and members belonging to other denominations than ours.

Third. That we are grateful for the excursion to the navy yard, for the kindness of the officers of that yard and on the battleship Texas.

Fourth. That we are not forgetful of the multiplied other kindnesses beyond these we have named.

Fifth. That we must mention the unwearied and lavish services of the pastors and presiding elder of our Methodist charges in Charleston.

MEMOIRS.

JOHN MANNING.

John Manning was born in Marlboro County, South Carolina, November 29, 1844, and was born again at old Clio Church, one mile from the town of Clio, August, 1873. From this hour Brother Manning was definitely religious and deeply pious. His early educational advantages were confined to the common schools of his day. At the beginning of the War between the States he enlisted in the Confederate service, and was a brave and faithful soldier to the close of hostilities. At the time of his conversion he felt the call to preach, and soon thereafter was licensed. At the Conference held in 1889 in Camden he was admitted on trial and appointed to the Pee Dee Mission, but owing to the failure of the health of Rev. F. Auld, who was on the Clio Circuit, he was soon put in charge of the Clio Circuit, where he labored acceptably to the close of that year. From the close of 1890 to 1896 his work was as follows: Wedgefield, Waterloo, North Marlboro and Edgewood. At the close of 1896, on account of failing health, he was granted the supernumerary relation, which he retained until 1903, when he re-entered the regular work and served the following charges: Cool Springs, Conway Circuit, Clyde and Richland. At the Conference of 1907 he was superannuated and remained in that relation until January 28, 1910, when he went to his reward.

There was not a more consecrated man among us than was Brother Manning; and perhaps none who did so much with so small an equipment. He was a strong preacher, mighty in exhortation, and all prevailing in prayer. Honored and loved by the people where he grew up, he was a successful farmer and merchant until he entered the work of the ministry, and was as signally successful in this higher work as he had been in his business life. Many, very many were blessed by his ministry, and live to love his memory.

Brother Manning was twice married. He first married Miss Katherine Smith McRae, of which union there were six children, four of whom preceded him to the heavenly home, and one, Mrs. A. E. Felder, with whom he lived, and where he passed away, has joined her father in the Father's house above during this year. His second marriage was to Miss Rebecca Kinney, who preceded him to heaven only a few years ago.

"Servant of God, well done." J. B. WILSON.

MURDOCH M. FERGUSON.

On January 30, 1910, there fell on sleep a man of more than four score years, who walked in his integrity all his life and whose high character and kindly deeds were known everywhere he had lived, even for briefest season. In the toils of secular business in his youth, in the camp and on the battlefield in time of war, a mature workman after the war-drum ceased to throb, he lived far above the common walks of men, unspotted from the world. Converted so clearly that not only he but all who saw him knew it, his ministries as a layman laid an entire county under heavy debt to him; then called to preach, he so magnified his ministry that his name is a household word wherever he preached the glorious gospel of the blessed God. His youth was clean, his mature years were pure, his later days were saintly. So true to all duty, so kind to all men was he, that even before his conversion his life put to the blush many who were converted and who had honorable place among Christians. Children, large and small, ran to meet him as he walked the village streets; young men and women smiled as he approached; mature men had faces aglow as the sturdy Scotchman joined them; the aged and sick rejoiced as he bent to care for them. Veterans of all classes clasped hands with him—if they did not embrace him—and remembered the soldier who feared nothing but God, and who loved comrades and humankind. As a preacher he was even a fairer type than Goldsmith's pastor; but, like him, "he pointed to heaven and led the way." His messages in the pulpit were faithful and fervent; his pastoral ministrations in the homes and along the highways so wise and unceasing that rich and poor, saint and sinner, old and young, loved him, and leaned on him—never in vain. Oh, brethren, it was a simple, straightforward, stainless, splendid life from its boyhood in the old North State to the days of extreme age beneath the sighing pines of Aiken County. No wonder God left him with us so long—and yet we wished him longer. Earth needs such lofty, unselfish men, helpful men—needs them sorely, so sorely!

The man I speak of—and speak of with words utterly insufficient to his worth—was the Rev. Murdoch McIver Ferguson. He was the son of Daniel and Mary McIver Ferguson and was born in Moore County, North Carolina, July 3, 1826. His education began in a home of pure living. A few years in school added to the lessons of a godly father and mother. Then it was continued as the youth and man worked, thought, and read all the years of his life. While a lover of books, he was largely a man of one book—the Bible. That divine volume was to him as meat and drink. He entered the Confederate army among the earliest and served faithfully until the righteous cause of the South was lost. After the war he resumed his business as a jeweler and photographer in the town of Marion. He cared little or nothing for money, except as it enabled him to help others; but he was a successful business man, and Marion never knew one more highly honored and respected—even before his conversion—how much the more when his splendid life flowered under the grace of God into full beauty!

In October, 1871, he went to Centenary to a camp meeting for one day. Reverently attending the service—as he was accustomed to do—the Word took hold upon him as it never had before. He was profoundly convicted. He went back to the village. The conviction deepened with every passing day. His spiritual distress was so great that he absolutely forgot to eat and drink. The camp meeting having closed, the pastor of Marion, the Rev. R. R. Pegues, had immediately commenced revival services in the village. Of course the mourner attended these and finally was gloriously converted. As he was a pure, upright man before, we thought there would be little change wrought by conversion. It was as great a transformation as if a vile sinner had been brought from darkness to light! All men could see that he was a new man in Christ Jesus. He entered the church of his fathers—the Presbyterian—but church lines could not circumscribe his love and labor. All the villege was shepherded by him. So remarkable was his influence that many thought it was too great for him to surrender even when he was called to preach. But his call to preach became clear and insistent. He hesitated, but about the year 1874 he yielded. Without losing any of his love for the Presbyterian Church, he believed himself more in accord with the doctrines of Methodism, and felt that he could be more useful in the ministry of that communion. Therefore, he transferred his membership to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; was licensed to preach, and joined the South Carolina Conference in December, 1874. Under his ministry sinners were converted, old and young joined the church, Christians were built up in the faith, the sick and dying were comforted and pointed to Him who is the conqueror of death. The charges he served gave him but poor salaries; he cared nothing for that. He was so attractive that this strange fact came to pass: in all his itinerant life he never paid one cent of board; and only for two years was put to the expense of partially caring for the horse with which he rode his circuit. Men counted that it was worth far more than board for this Christian gentleman to live in their homes, and he had a home everywhere he was sent. With his sturdy self-respect he was unwilling to receive this without something in return, and everywhere he found opportunity to render service which amply compensated those who meant simply to render him a kindness. His charges were: Junior preacher on Edisto Circuit with J. L. Shuford, 1875; North Marlboro, 1876; Upper Edisto Mission, 1877-80; North Marlboro, 1881; Edisto Mission, 1886-89; Loris, 1890-92; Britton's Neck, 1893. In December, 1893, he requested a supernumerary relation and was given it, and he so continued until the last Conference, when he was made superannuate. In these years of retirement he still preached when he could. One thing he never missed, the Confederate reunions of the State and of the South.

In December, 1893, he married Mrs. Margaret L. Jordan. The wedded life of these two holy people was an idyl. Their home was a haven of happiness. Children and older people, kindred and friends loved to sojourn under this roof tree, where God's model man and woman dwelt. So that, though childless, they were never alone.

Brother Ferguson's health failed gradually. Year by year we could see that he grew feebler. Finally the end came. He was not only ready—he had long been looking to be "with Christ, which is far better." Honored and loved of God and men he fell on sleep. Far and near men, women and children mourned, in the better world a glorious welcome was given in the presence of the angels of God to one "who walked with God and was not, for God took him." JOHN O. WILLSON.

The writer of this tribute owes an incalculable debt to Brother Ferguson. Will the Conference permit me to state it in the briefest manner? When under profound conviction, I was seeking forgiveness. Brother Ferguson, then a member of the Presbyterian church, closed his place of business and gave me his help and prayers day and night until on the 30th of January, 1873, about one o'clock in the morning, while my friend was praying, I found Him, whom to find is life eternal.

J. O. W.

ANDREW JACKSON STAFFORD.

Five of us left Wofford College in 1859 to join the South Carolina Conference. Three, L. C. Weaver, A. J. Stokes and J. W. Humbert, joined in 1859; the writer three years later; and Andrew Jackson Stafford at Sumter, December, 1863. Weaver died early. His memoir was read at the session of the Conference Stafford joined. Humbert and Stokes survived many years—faithful, godly men—and only recently answered each his last roll call. And now Stafford has gone to join our classmates, and I am left alone to mourn their departure, and unhesitatingly and without the slightest affectation, to declare my utmost confidence in their beautiful, fragrant and fruitful lives.

When my lovely and sainted friend and I realized a few years ago that we were the survivors of our college class in the Conference, it was agreed between us that the survivor should prepare for this body the memoir of the first deceased. I knew him for fifty-four years and more, and I can say of him, as I look back over more than half a century of close acquaintance and fellowship, what he could not have said of me, namely, that if he had faults and blemishes, I did not detect them while he was living, nor do I remember them now that he is dead. When I apply the two adjectives, "blameless and harmless" (Phil. 2:15), to our dear Brother Stafford, it will occasion no surprise or embarrassment here among his bereaved brethren, nor will it whenever or wherever this memoir may be read. He was born in Rutherford County, North Carolina, March 6, 1834, and at his death was in two or three days of his 76th birthday. He was of Scotch-Irish descent through his mother, Miss Sarah L. Wallace, who was a devout and exemplary Presbyterian. His father, who was a man of strong native intellect and irreproachable moral character, was a Baptist. Young Stafford was early brought under the influence of Methodism through the ministry of Rev. P. F. Kistler, of the South Carolina Conference; and also that of Rev. Ben Hamilton, a local preacher of great ability, who at one time was a member of this body (1838-1844). They found the ambitious young student fighting against great odds up there in Piedmont North Carolina to get an education, and took him by the hand in the name of Christ and of Methodism. His father dying when he was twelve years old, he, the oldest of seven children, was forced to leave school, and after that for about ten years to continue his studies at home while helping to maintain the family, who were in moderate pecuniary circumstances. He continued his studies, however, up to respectable attainments in the higher mathematics and Latin, until he (a young local preacher) entered irregular classes in Wofford College in 1855. His first thought was to study some English and some Hebrew and some theology under Dr. Wightman, the president of the college, and Dr. H. Baer, in charge of the preparatory department, and, within a year, say, enter the South Carolina Conference on probation. Before he was at college a year, he gave up this plan and settled down to the very hardest kind of work. He finished in three years what it takes the average man four years to accomplish, and stood among the first men of the class on commencement day. Here is your true hero—the modest, industrious, pale-faced student, moving quietly along day by day to a late hour of the night. He couldn't enter the Conference immediately after his graduation. He was compelled to teach a while to pay in part for the education that had cost him such painful effort. Just then the war came on, he entered the Conference in the darkest time of that dark period. He wore a gray uniform at the time of his entrance. His appointment for two years was "in the army." He went into the service as a chaplain; came out as a private. He made the change from office to the ranks for conscientious reasons and to preserve his self-respect. It was just like Stafford to go to the front and to quit only when Lee surrendered at Appomattox, and after that to say very little about it. A true Southron he! At the close of the war he went into regular pastoral work, and, with the exception of one year, when he was a professor in the Columbia Female College, he continued a pastor till he was superannuated at Chester in 1899. He served fifteen charges, two of them twice. The records show that all the interests of the charges he served were carefully looked after. The collections were generally increased under his administration. In nearly every instance there were additions to the membership—sometimes quite a number. Two churches and two parsonages were built through his agency and under his oversight. It is a simple record. Nothing spectacular—only intelligent, faithful, conscientious, hard work. He did what he could, and as well as he could. In all his various fields the people gladly realized that they had in their midst, in their parsonage, in the pulpit, a cultured, Christian gentleman. He was gentle. He was a man. A sympathetic, honorable, high-toned, utterly trustworthy, Christian gentleman. He married the sweetheart of his early manhood, Miss Parthenia Beverly, of Wadesboro, N. C., in 1868. They were congenially mated in minds, manners and religion. They lived together nearly forty-two years, and were childless. I was with my friend less than a fortnight before his death, which was followed in a few days by the death of his wife, whose memoir will be read at this service. Surely, surely, I must be a better man from the experience of my last short visit to his home—the place seemed nigh onto the verge of heaven. They lie buried at Wadesboro, Mrs. Stafford's girlhood home. Their modest estate goes to his alma mater. Glad am I that the name of Stafford, along with that of James H. Carlisle, will ever hereafter be associated with Wofford College in the history of the South Carolina Conference! S. A. WEBER.

THOMAS ELLIOT WANNAMAKER.

1828-1910. Between these dates was enacted the lifework of a faithful, good man, and an equally faithful minister of the gospel. Old age with a good life back of it, has ever had the eulogies of good men and the blessing and benedictions of God. These are rich tributes which come to the faithful, and to the faithful alone. God has chosen representative characters in all ages, whose lives and achievements were types to be followed by others, and examples to be emulated by their successors. Death is rarely ever more hopeful than life has been faithful and fruitful. "He fell on sleep and was gathered to his people," is the divine approval and estimate of character as it is revealed in a useful and worthy life. The choice which God makes of leadership is always wise, and therefore worthy of an honored succession. He puts each actor in his proper place and accords to each his due mead of praise. A critical judge of human character. He knows whom to trust, and trusts them that are trustworthy.

Comparatively few people make up the moral and religious history of the race for the first two thousand years of its historic life. The chief actors of this period were of the same race, and its greatest leaders were of the same family. On them the anointing hand of God rested, and they were chosen of God to become leaders of the people. They were the honored leaders of the domestic, social, moral and religious life of the communities where they lived, and the people looked to them for direction. The same facts obtain now. Each community has its cherished traditions—for no individual, community, State, or nation, it has been said, can be really great which has no traditions. Each community has its moral and religious landmarks. The life of every good man, therefore, is monumental, because his deeds perpetuate themselves in their transmitted influences on the lives and characters of others. Such men are, and ever have been, the divinely appointed successors to the patriarchs, prophets and apostles, and of a religious inheritance which must abide forever. Their sphere of action, it may be, is more limited, and their fields of operation not so extensive, but their influence on the communities where they live is a reproduction of the very best developments of prophetic life and apostolic character. It is a matter of profound gratitude to God that these local landmarks have blessed the church in deeds of faithful service all along the way, and as the opportunities for greater and better service are constantly enlarging, our modern church life has developed specimens worthy of patriarchal and apostolic times. In the application of these principles and to furnish an illustration of their truth, I wish to call your attention to a brief and necessarily imperfect outline of the life and character of the good man whose name was called at the beginning of this paper.

Few men have lived among us whose life work was more diversified than was that of our departed father and brother. Student, teacher, college professor, local preacher, circuit rider, station preacher, and presiding elder, he was faithful and efficient in all these relations. Efficient because he was faithful, and faithful because he was called of God to his work.

Rev. Thomas Elliot Wannamaker was born a few miles east of the city of Orangeburg, October 13, 1828, and died in that city April 7, 1910. He was of German extraction and possessed the sterling qualities and characteristics of his Teutonic blood in an eminent degree. He became a Christian in early life, and at the same time he joined the Methodist Church, and was faithful to his church and loyal to his Master through all the succeeding years. In 1846 he entered the South Carolina College at Columbia, and from this honored institution he graduated with distinction in June, 1849. Later on he was Professor of Greek and Latin in the Cokesbury Conference School. After leaving Cokesbury he became Principal of the Laurensville High School. At a later period he was Professor in Masonic Female College, a girls' high school located in Abbeville County, S. C.

He was licensed to preach in 1854. In 1858 he was elected to a professorship in Columbia Female College, which position he held until the college was closed in 1865. From 1854 to 1868, when he was admitted on trial in this Conference, he was a most active and efficient local preacher, and as one has said of him: "He was in constant demand for important pulpit services."

Brother Wannamaker was clear in thought and forceful in utterance, and when he was an old man and feeble by reason of age, when it was known that he was to preach, the people came in crowds to hear him.

The fields of his active service in the itinerant ministry were as follows: Upper St. Matthew's, Bethel station in the city of Charleston, Allendale, P. E. of the Charleston district four years, Bamberg, Upper St. Matthews for the second time, Bennettsville station, Chester station, Sumter station, and Santee circuit. For a few years he held the supernumerary relation, but, feeling the effects of age, he was, at his own request, superannuated in November, 1899.

For a period of nearly twenty years, and up to the time of his death, he lived in the city of Orangeburg, among his kindred and friends. There on April 7, 1910, he fell on sleep and was "gathered to his people."

He leaves to his aged wife, now in her eightieth year, the rich legacy of a stainless character, to his children an example for them to follow worthy of imitation in all the walks of life, to the church he served so long he bequeathed his last prayer and his departing blessing. "His whole life was one of sunshine," said one of his neighbors to the writer on the day of his funeral. "He never grew old," said another of his friends, "for he was always young in spirit."

He retired from the active work without the slightest intimation that he was not wanted and rejoiced at the success which came to the ministry of younger men. The end of such a life could not be other than peaceful. There were no last words—none were needed. He died as he had lived—a Christian. He made this statement, however, some months before his death, and while he was in good health: "My house has been set in order for many years, and if it were not, I can hardly see how it could be attended to now." He was a ripe sheaf for the garner. On his credentials, thank God, there are no spots. His character, like his deeds, is a monument to the saving grace of God.

He was married to Miss Sarah Ann Boyd, the eldest daughter of Rev. Dr. R. J. Boyd, of the South Carolina Conference, on September 2, 1850. There were eleven children, six of whom survive. The living sons are Dr. Theodore Wannamaker, of Cheraw; Dr. Edward J. and Capt. W. W. Wannamaker, of Orangeburg; and Mr. Thomas Heber Wannamaker, of Columbia. The only living daughter is Mrs. Sarah Boyd Keller, of Orangeburg. In addition to his children, he leaves a large circle of kindred bearing his name and a larger circle of friends, who think themselves fortunate to have known this good man.

The influence of such a life is the richest endowment that can come to the church of God, because it is a revelation of what the grace of God can do for men—and of what men may become by the grace of God. He said to his pastor in February before he died in April: "God has put more than eighty years into my life, years of gracious opportunity, and when the call comes I shall have no reason to complain." When the call came there were no complaints, no misgivings, no apprehensions of the future.

"The call at midnight came—
He started up to hear—
A mortal arrow pierced his frame—
He fell, but felt no fear."

GEORGE WASHINGTON GATLIN.

Our estimate of a man's value to the world should not be based upon the factitious circumstances of his ancestry, when and where he was born, his educational advantages, the sphere in which he may have moved, the distinction he may have achieved, the plaudits he may have won. But the criterion by which to determine what any man, when he is gone, has been worth to the world is the kind and amount of service he has rendered his fellow-men. Measured by this standard the real value of such men as George Washington Gatlin to humanity is beyond computation.

I met Brother Gatlin first in 1866 at Charlotte, North Carolina, while I was pastor of Tryon Street Church. He was then a local preacher. He impressed me as a young man of more than ordinary decision of character, emphasized connections, and marked self-reliance.

He spent several years immediately succeeding this period in attending school here and there, teaching, and serving as supply in the itinerant ranks. In December, 1870, he was received on trial into the South Carolina Conference, and it is safe to say that no menber of this body has done more faithful work than he.

He was not what men esteem a great preacher. His sermons were plain, practical, earnest—bearing evidence of thought, prayerful preparation—their chief characteristic, both in matter and delivery, being the high purpose of helping his fellow mortals through earth to heaven.

For full fifty years this dear brother suffered from the effects of a wound received while defending the homes of the Southern people, and ofttimes during the delivery of his sermons his sufferings amounted to intense agony. Finally he died a martyr to the principles for which he shed his blood, and which in the end cost him his life. The same spirit of heroism manifested itself during the whole tenure of his ministry. The fields he served were not always the most inviting. They, as a rule, covered wide areas and were frequently rugged, and sometimes furnished a scant support, but he went gracefully to his appointments and, in the spirit of his Master, labored for thirty-nine years for the salvation of souls.

A patient sufferer—worn and wasted—he was superannuated in December, 1903, but continued to do what he could for the wellbeing of those around him until his energies were utterly exhausted.

After his superannuation he made his home in Conway, where he was well known and dearly loved, and where he died on the 17th of June, 1910. Died! did I say? Nay. As the loving mother tenderly awakes her ailing child from its restless slumbers when the night is gone, takes off its night robe, puts its day-dress on, and carries it into the bracing morning air, so when the light of the eternal morn broke in on George Gatlin's couch the loving Father awoke his tired child, divested him of the habiliments of sickness and suffering which erstwhile had wrapped him about, clothed him in immortal garb, and translated him from the fevered dreams and broken slumbers of a chequered life into the purer air and undisturbed rest beyond the clouds.

As a touching evidence of the esteem in which Brother Gatlin was held by all classes in the community of Conway, business of all kinds was suspended during his funeral exercises.

I will be pardoned, I am sure, for putting on record here my appreciation of George Gatlin as a man and a friend. Richly endowed with the qualities that constitute a genuine manhood and trustworthy companionship, those who knew him felt that they could rely implicitly upon him in any emergency. Added to these noble qualities was his large-hearted hospitality. His home, as well as his heart, was always open to his friends, and amid the varied circumstances of his life he was ever ready to do what he could for their comfort and enjoyment.

And, now, last, but not least, amid the more sacred relationships of the home circle while his demeanor was dignified, his affection for those he loved best was cheery as the spring-time and the songs of the birds.

To find a soul so rare among the unpretentious denizens of earth is like coming upon an oasis here and there in earth's sterile wastes.

When we see George Gatlin again he will not be the tottering form he was when we saw him last, but a hearty, vigorous man, clothed in the immortal habiliments of heaven. W. C. Power.

Edward Madison Merritt.

A good man, a loyal Methodist preacher, and a faithful servant of God and of His church has gone from amongst us. True it is that "the Lord buries His workman and carries on His work." Within the now silent space indicated by the dates March 31, 1846, and August 30, 1910, is recorded the earthly history of a worthy life. Since not a sparrow falleth to the ground without our Father's notice, certain it is that He is not unmindful of His servants and that He marks well their resting places.

Edward Madison Merritt, son of Allen O. and Dorcas A. Merritt, was born in Greenville County, S. C., March 31, 1846. He departed this life at his home, at Landrum, S. C., August 30, 1910, in perfect peace.

Brother Merritt was converted and joined the Methodist church when fifteen years of age. He realized a divine call to preach the gospel a few years later and was received into the South Carolina Conference December, 1874. During the following five years he served the following charges: Pickens mission, Westminster and Belmont circuits, after which he was located at his own request and remained a local preacher for eleven years. Five of these he served as a supply, one year on Kershaw circuit, and three years on Pickens mission.

In 1890 Brother Merritt was readmitted into the South Carolina Conference, and after serving West Anderson and Hartsville circuits one year each, was transferred to the Western North Carolina Conference. There he remained for six years. In December, 1898, he was transferred back to the South Carolina Conference, and, after serving six years on missions and circuits, he was granted the superannuated relation, which relation he sustained at the time of his death.

Our departed brother was twice married. First to Miss Maria Isabelle Elrod, of Anderson County, South Carolina. To this union two children were born. December 1, 1874, he married Miss Amanda A. Durant, of Sumter County, South Carolina. This union was blessed with nine children. Seven children and a wife survive. We mourn with them their loss.

Brother Merritt was loved and respected by all who knew him. His honesty of purpose, his true sincerity, and his devoutness of spirit impressed every one with whom he came in contact. He was a true, Christian gentleman. Because of his extreme modesty it is possible he underestimated his own strength. His ministry was always helpful to the people. Sometimes when especially moved by the Spirit of God, he preached the gospel with great effect. His educational advantages were limited, but early acquiring studious habits, he laid a good foundation and became well furnished and efficient in his work.

The spirit of the warrior was his and not the least of the sufferings he was called to endure was to stand aside and not be permitted to engage in the battle. Still he was cheerful and patient to the end. He could say with Paul: "I know in whom I have trusted and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day."

Realizing that the end was near he set his house in order. The final summons came. It found him ready and he went out without a struggle to meet his Lord. Passing through the valley of the shadow of death, surrounded by his family and friends anxious for a final message, he uttered triumphantly, "All's right! All's right!" In a short while his spirit took its flight to the realms of light.

His body was laid to rest at Carlisle, Union County, South Carolina, September 1, 1910, there to await the resurrection of the just.

E. Z. JAMES.

JAMES CARSON YONGUE.

James Carson Yongue was born in Columbia, S. C., October 15, 1855, and died in Pickens, S. C., October 24, 1910, in which town he was buried. He was the son of Robert Aiken and Mary Richardson Yongue. The father dying while the son was quite a little child, Brother Yongue found a home in the family of his uncle, Rev. Dr. F. A. Mood, of the South Carolina Conference. Brother Yongue was a student in Porter Military Academy in Charleston and at a German and English classical institute, where the foundation of his intellectual activities was laid.

Brother Yongue was married October 15, 1878, to Miss Caroline Juliet Stroman. To this union were born six children, five of whom are still living. In 1880 he joined the Methodist Church and was licensed to preach in 1884, and at the close of that year was admitted on trial into the South Carolina Conference. He was an active itinerant for twenty-five years, filling the appointments assigned him with marked ability, and brought hundreds of souls into the church. The following were his appointments: Boiling Springs, 1885; Williston, 1886; Colleton, 1887-88; Walterboro circuit, 1889-90; Ridgeville, 1891-92; Cumberland, in Charleston, 1893-95; Orangeburg circuit, 1896-97; Edisto, 1898-1900; Cameron, 1901-04; Santee, 1905-06; Walhalla and Seneca, 1907-09; Pickens, 1910.

Brother Yongue was one of the best pastors that ever blessed the homes of South Carolina Methodists by his visits. He went everywhere; he neglected no one. He visited with a noble and absorbing purpose, to do the people good. He was systematic and kept accurate records of every phase of his work. He knew his people and they knew him in a close, intimate, helpful way. He was ever on the alert that he might lift up and encourage those who were weakest, and thousands will rise up and call him blessed.

As a preacher, he was above the average, a man of ready utterance; he preached at times with such power that scores would be awakened and brought to Christ. He instructed and guided young converts and led them into the higher paths of usefulness. In the pulpit and out of it he sought and fed hungry people, and they were made strong. He was every whit a man, fearless and courageous. If at times his uncompromising attitude towards what he considered wrong led him into extremes, he was man enough to set himself right, even to the acknowledgment of error on his part. He was true in his friendships, prudent in his deportment, and faithful to all obligations of every kind. He grew in grace and knowledge, even unto the end. His joy was to do his Master's will, yea, to suffer if need be. He did suffer, but he did not murmur. His last utterances were words of comfort and blessing. He pronounced the benediction and quickly passed through the gates into the church triumphant. His is a large reward in our Father's house.

The Preachers' Wives.

There is a heroism hid away in the quiet places of life which is as dauntless as that which is seen on the broad and bloody battlefield; there is a devotion shown in the privacies where men dwell which is as true as that which spends its uttermost in the crowded and open arena where great issues are decided; there is a service, aye, and sacrifice, seen of none but God, that fully equals the loftiest deeds men have done and the greatest suffering men have endured in the glare of full-orbed day. Men rarely know these things—but God knows, and when He renders rewards some of the highest places of paradise shall be given to these heroic, devoted and faithful ones. And when the universe hears the righteous judgment of the Most High, all will learn that among these heroic but modest ones are the women who shared the toils and triumphs, the sufferings and seeming failures of the Methodist itinerant.

Some of these blessed women fell on sleep this year, and this brief tribute records but a shadow of their splendid lives and labors:

MRS. JANIE HUTCHISON MEADORS.

Mrs. Janie Hutchison Meadors, daughter of Irvin and Nancy Hutchison and wife of Rev. W. P. Meadors, was born near Ninety-Six, S. C., August 16, 1862, was married March 21, 1882, and died in Kingstree, S. C., April 16, 1910. Early she gave her heart to God and all her days were spent in the communion of the Methodist Church. Sweet-spirited and faithful, she walked with God to the end. She was educated at Williamston Female College, now Lander College, during the presidency of the late Dr. Samuel Lander.

Sister Meadors was faithful in all life's relations, but the home had the best that was hers. Husband and children know many a service that none else could see, but as far as a quiet woman's opportunity reached, all received richly from a loving and unstinted ministry. Eight children, seven of whom survive—with their father—"arise up and call her blessed."

MRS. HARRIET BRYCE HERBERT.

One of the gentlest and saintliest women of our church ascended to her heavenly rest at Leesville, S. C., on March 21, 1910. From childhood to life's last hour she walked with God; and all knew her as a woman full of faith and the Holy Spirit. Mrs. Harriet Bryce Herbert, daughter of Hon. Robert Bryce and widow of the late Rev. T. G. Herbert, was born in Columbia February 8, 1831, and married April 7, 1853. Her father was a holy man, her husband was of like spotless life. Her children—three of them members of this Conference—were and are worthy their parentage. She brought them up in the nurture of the Lord, and five are with her in the land of the blessed, the four survivors are on the way. In the day of her itinerant experience she was in all respects a helpmeet to her husband. Whatever she could do to help him, to fashion her home, to serve neighbors, friends, and all besides—she did. In retirement the same sweet, Christian womanhood shone out far and near. All that knew her honored this saintly Christian, her friends loved her, kindred felt a deeper affection, husband and children a wonderful devotion. "A woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised."

MRS. PARTHENIA STAFFORD.

Mrs. Parthenia Stafford, wife of Rev. A. J. Stafford, saw her husband fall on sleep on March 3, 1910, and followed him to the realms of everlasting life about two weeks later. He and she were as one all their days—a Christian gentleman and a Christian gentlewoman of rarest type, sweetest spirit, spotless life, faithful career. It was a sermon to see them, an inspiration to hear them. Everywhere they were sent, their pure lives were as ointment poured forth. When one died, the other could not live. "They were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in death they were not divided."

MRS. MINERVA MARY HUMBERT.

In December, 1878, at Newberry, S. C., a little band of women, whose hearts God had touched, took up the task of organizing the women of South Carolina for woman's work for foreign missions. Among them was one who, from that day until the hour when, in the same town of Newberry, she breathed her last on November 7, 1910, literally gave all her powers to this high service. Itinerant changes wrought no change, increasing years could not hinder, bereavement did not stay her toil.

Not until the summons, "Come up higher," did she cease to labor and to live for missions.

Mrs. Minerva Mary Humbert, daughter of Gen. H. H. Kinard, wife first of Mr. W. B. D'Oyley and then of Rev. John W. Humbert, was born November 29, 1831, and departed this life November 7, 1910. Richly endowed in mind and heart, educated carefully and well, soundly converted, Sister Humbert was able to do work far above most women, and she did "what she could." She is known and loved in our home-land and far away in the land of Sinim.

When she saw the hour of departure was near, she remembered the institutions of her church, and by her will left offerings to them, but the best legacy she left is her splendid life and ceaseless labors. Surely she hath heard, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joys of thy Lord."

MRS. SARAH PAULINE ISOM.

Mrs. Sarah Pauline Isom, daughter of James H. and Frances Kidd, and wife of Rev. J. N. Isom, was born in York County, South Carolina, January 6, 1867, and departed this life on May 7, 1910, with full assurance of the rest that remaineth to the people of God. She was genuinely converted and kept the faith all her days. In her home she ministered lovingly to those in that sacred circle, and without she rendered service to all whom she could aid. Young and old honor her; those who knew her best loved her most. "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord, from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."
